POLITICAL.

Since Blaine has championed the trusts, Chairman Quay has ceased to trust Blaine.—Philadelphia Times.

First San Francisco Citizen—I see Denis Kearney is doing good work for Harrison and Morton.
 Second San Francisco Citizen—Why, I thought he was talking against them.
 "Yes, that's what I said."—New York Tribune.

It is time the people were relieved from the necessity of paying tribute to the high protected monopolies on every bite that they eat and every stitch that they wear. The Mills bill is a measure to abolish taxation on the necessities of life, levied on the many to put millions in the pockets of the few. The bill is certain to triumph, for "ever the right comes uppermost and ever is justice done."—Buffalo Courier.

The Republican party calls for free whisky, but the disciples of Blaine, or rather Harrison, squirm in lively style, get real angry and call people's hard names who say they think it means free whisky, because it says so. According to their line of argument a reduction of the tariff tax from 47 to 40 per cent, just 7 per cent, and you means free trade, but taking the tax entirely off of whisky does not mean free whisky.—Keokuk Constitution Democrat.

The highest endorsement that can be given to the Democratic policy of tariff reform is the assertion of its opponents that it "will make this country a free trade land within twenty years." The necessity of raising an enormous revenue will render this impossible. But the prediction that a little reduction will work so well that the people will vote for more at every congressional election for the next twenty years is a confession of the soundness of the policy which was unlooked for in its enemies.
 —New York Herald.

The Republicans seem to be displeased that the President should contribute $10,000 to the campaign fund of his party. Why? "The Lord loveth a cheerful giver." The gentleman who is now the Republican candidate for Vice-President gave $25,000 to his party in 1880 and expected to be Secretary of the Treasury in consequence. He was tricked out of that. He was offered the sash and refused it, but finally compromised on the French mission. His contribution will be quite as large this year.
 He is liberal at heart and has the means to justify it. Mr. Elkins and his friends will put up for Mr. Harrison.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The mission to the Sandwich Islands cost the American board $500,000 in all, while the trade, which of course goes to the benefit of the commercial community, amounted at the end of sixty years to about $15,000,000, with a clean profit annually of more than $800,000.

The bishop of Florida was absent from his diocese when the news reached him of the appearance of yellow fever in Jacksonville. He reached the city by the earliest train, and will remain there while the danger lasts. All the clergy of the city are at their posts and will remain there.
